Art Unit: 1732

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35

U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-11, drawn to a method of producing a 3-D object, classified in class 264, subclass 308.
- II. Claims 12-15, drawn to the 3-D object, classified in class 428, subclass 67.
- III. Claim 16-21, drawn to an apparatus for making a 3-D object, classified in class 425, subclass 375.
- IV. Claims 22-25, drawn to a method of identifying a 3-D object, classified in class 383, subclass 128.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and III are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP §

Art Unit: 1732

806.05(e)). In this case the method as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus such as a laminating machine.

3. Inventions III and II are related as apparatus and product made.

The inventions in this relationship are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the apparatus as claimed is not an obvious apparatus for making the product and the apparatus can be used for making a different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different apparatus (MPEP § 806.05(g)). In this case the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different apparatus such as using a laminating apparatus.

4. Inventions I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product made can be made by a materially different process such as laminating.

Art Unit: 1732

5. Inventions IV and I-III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions have different functions or different effects. For example, the method of identifying something using the imaging device or the 3-D object does not require the apparatus or the method of making the 3-D object or even the claim 3-D object.

6. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

7. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

8. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for any one Group is not required for the other group, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

9. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
